Claire,

I was able to consult with my client on this, and we will be producing income/expense information going back 5 years, subject to the protective order entered in the case and identified as "attorney's eyes only" to avoid disclosure to the public or to George's competitors (ie the other defendants in the case), and preserving all of our objections to producing such information.

We will not produce statements of cash flows, audit information, income tax returns, etc that were requested. We do not see how any of that information is discoverable or relevant to any claims in the lawsuit.

Thank you,

James M. Graves
